New York. April 10, 1905

Dr. F. W. Hinitt,
Pres., Central University of Ky.,
Danville, Ky.

Dear Sir,

Yours of April 7th received. In view of the fact that dozens of applications have to be filed every day without even acknowledgment and that you have just received a gift from Mr. Carnegie, we have no sympathy for your further request.

Respectfully yours,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, which appears to read "P. Secretary", written over a horizontal line.

P. Secretary.
