Dear Friend:

Danville, Ky.

Have you had a chance yet to talk over at home about going to Centre next year? Better write to Pres. R. A. Montgomery, at Danville, Kentucky, pretty soon for a catalog so you can look over the courses. Decide as quickly as possible so you can reserve your room at Breckinridge Hall. Every year there is a large number of applicants, and it has to be a case of first come first served.

On the square, would't you like to be prancing around in our big new stadium right now, kicking the dirt up on your back and maybe getting the gable end of your pants smacked around in front? By the way, we have a practice field for Varsity, another for Freshman, the regular Game field - all inside the enclosure, and with plenty of grass. We have an "up-town" gym about forty yards from the stadium gate. We have a houseful of good football equipment and plenty of new stuff coming on. We use only the best. Some of the gang look all dressed like a mule in buggy harness, but just the same they step high, wide and handsome. You bet I'll be glad when the time comes to crack down on the old boys again. I'll be so full of pep, I'll sound like somebody tearing the shingles off a roof.

Freshmen can play in some of the Varsity games. A good chance for you there. You'll get the same coaching the Varsity gets besides your own coach and a Freshman schedule. Say, you ought to have seen our "Fish" mop up last fall (twice on Kentucky State for instance). They felt their oats so strong they gave the Varsity the "beebie Jeebies" every time they tangled up. Big boy, our Freshmen are game enough to climb naked up a honey-locust tree with a wildcat under each arm; they'd fight a shark on the bottom of the ocean with an anvil in each hand, or get a hair-singe under a gasoline shower. It's getting so we've almost got to wrap burglar-proof safes around our Varsity men to keep the "Fresh" from crippling them. I guarantee you'll have the time of your young life on Centre's yearling football team.

Here is the Varsity schedule: Oct. 4, Valparaiso at Danville; Oct 11, Carson-Newman at Danville; Oct 18th, Pennsylvania at Danville; Oct. 25, West Virginia at Polo Grounds New York; Nov. 1, Kentucky at Lexington; Nov. 8, Tennessee at Knoxville; Nov. 15th, Alabama at Birmingham; Nov. 29th, Georgia at Danville.

We take a number of the most promising Freshman on the various big trips.

I've a lot of things to talk to you about besides football about the grandest old college of them all. Meantime get all set to be with us for there are wonderful things ahead of you. More later.

Yours in Old Centre,
