

ORDER OF EXERCISES
AT THE
Dedication of the
CALDWELL INSTITUTE FOR YOUNG LADIES,
DANVILLE, KY.,
ON FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15th, 1861.

1.

Chanting the Lord's Prayer.

2.

Reading of the Scriptures.

3.

Hymn.

Farmer of light! thy presence grant,
And consecrate this place;
Touch all our hearts; and there implant
Thy sanctifying grace.

Of knowledge, truth and virtue, Lord,
May this a temple be;
And for thy gift, with one accord,
We'll render thanks to thee.

On those who teach, let power descend,
Passion and self be blind;
Wisdom and love to sweetly blend,
And guide the youthful mind;

Children true wealth in hearing see;
The paths of virtue love;
Their hearts, their lives devote to thee,
And fix their hopes above.

Teachers and children, then, we trust,
Thy favor, Lord, will share;
And when the parents sleep in dust,
Their offspring be thy care.

4.
Prayer.

5.
Dedication Ode.

The builder's thought alone,
Within this house has grown,
Till this proud day,—
Henceforth shall noble speech,
Brave thoughts that God doth teach,
All wisdom man can reach,
Have here a sway.

These walls so cold and still,
Shall echo to the thrill
From heart and mind;
And waves of music sound,
In graceful swell rebound,
And cast their wealth around
For souls to find.

Thus to our finer eyes,
A dome of thoughts shall rise,
These walls adorn;—
For this in faith we wait,
This may God consecrate,
And both we dedicate
In happy song.

6.
Address by Rev. E. W. Green, D. D.

7.
Anthem.

8.
Doxology and Benediction.

EXERCISES TO COMMENCE AT 10½ O'CLOCK, A. M.